

ATS 2024 International Conference Cashless Policy

Funds Received by the ATS

ATS will no longer accept cash payments. This includes payments for registration, store purchases, membership renewals, American Thoracic Society center purchases, research and assembly receptions, and any other item for which the ATS collects payment.

In lieu of cash, attendees can pay the ATS via credit card, debit card, Visa or American Express gift cards, personal checks, cashier's checks, or money order.

How to Obtain Acceptable Forms of Payment

- A cashier's check can be obtained from a financial institution/bank in which the attendee has an account (a listing of banks near the convention center is referenced below)
- Money orders obtained from the United States Postal Service or a CVS retail store (locations near the convention center are listed below)
- Gift cards (Visa, American Express) purchased at multiple retail locations such as a CVS retail store (locations near the convention center are listed below)

Cashing Checks From the ATS

If you should receive a check from the ATS while on site, such as an award, and wish to cash it, the local Bank of America branch is listed below (photo identification required).
